6th Edition of Japan Travel Fair Returns to Takashimaya Square

Singapore, 29 September 2017 – The Japan National Tourism Organization (JNTO) Singapore Office will host the sixth edition of Japan Travel Fair (JTF) from 6 to 8 October 2017 (Friday to Sunday), 1000hr to 2130hr, at Basement 2, Takashimaya Square. This is an exclusive travel fair that caters to visitors choosing Japan as their holiday destination in autumn, winter and spring.

This is the first time JNTO Singapore is adopting VR technology as a means to bring Japan closer to its visitors. It is now possible to fit on Virtual Reality (VR) goggles and teleport away to famous Japan destinations like Shirakawago, Goshikinuma and Mt. Aso! Experience the close proximity of these picturesque sights like never before. Visit the Japan Virtual Experience booth and embark on a magnificent 360-degree VR Japan Travel.

There will be 12 major participating local travel agencies offering special promotional Japan products. JNTO's travel partners consisting of prefectural and municipal offices, railway companies, hotel groups and other travel related companies will be exhibiting too. Representatives from these various Japanese organisations will be on site to share the latest Japan travel information and brochures.
